

Jeff Wall, Dead Troops Talk (A Vision After an Ambush of a Red Army Patrol near Moqor, Afghanistan, Winter, 1986)

Susan Sontag called this photo the 'opposite of a document.'

Wall's image is a fundamental critique of male violence and the destructive energy and senselessness of war.

What does a photographer do in terms of new tactics to engage the public.

Besides dramatic pictures of a battlefield, what other kinds of images are being made?
